The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31; from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m., Sundays, 2 to 6 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts).

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with museum instructors.

FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

To the Governing Members of The Art Institute of Chicago:

The past year, it is perhaps unnecessary to state, has been marked by nation-wide financial depression. All institutions dependent on public support have suffered a diminution in income and the Art Institute in particular has suffered severely. Interest on loans has been lowered, income from memberships has fallen off and our annual appropriation from the South Park Board which in 1929 amounted to $222,220.52 was reduced to $36,820.05, due to the repayment of $150,000 advanced to the Art Institute on tax anticipation warrants in 1929. To cover this deficit the Trustees found it necessary to use reserves built up from unrestricted funds. In 1927, 1928, and 1929 we used reserves to reduce bank loans from $344,000 to $142,000, but with our present income we must be content if we can keep our loans at the current amount. The year was begun with a deficit in the museum budget and the capital account of $18,000. In spite of the heavy losses in income we are again able, through the most rigorous economies in administration, to meet expenditures for the year 1930. The budget for the year 1931 carries with it a deficit of $27,000 in museum operation as well as a deficit of $20,000 in the capital account.

From the foundation of the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre it was found necessary to establish a separate budget, and this budget is not included in the foregoing statement. In 1930 the deficit in the Theatre and Dramatic School amounted to $34,895.81 covered in part by a guarantee. The Repertory Company, improved and strengthened in personnel, is now under the direction of Hubert Osborne, whose productions mark a distinct advance in quality over those of former years. Dr. Maurice Gnesin, with wide experience as playwright, actor, director and teacher, comes to us from the University of Denver to serve as Head of the Dramatic School and as occasional director of the Repertory Company. Plays produced during the year by the Repertory Company include: "Tour du Monde" by Jules Verne; "The Field God" by Paul Green; "Holiday" by Philip Barry; "The Rivals" by Richard Brinsley Sheridan; "Kolpak Must Dance" by Helmuth Unger; "Ariadne" by A. A. Milne; "Escape" by John Galsworthy; "The Firebrand" by Edward Justus Mayer; "Hotel Universe" by Philip Barry; "Hay Fever" by Noel Coward.

The Children's Theatre under the direction of Muriel Brown again admirably justified its existence as an educational force in the Chicago district by its production of the following plays: "Scotch Twins" by Lucy Fitch Perkins; "Little Women" by Louisa M. Alcott (Dramatization by Marion De Forest); "Poor Little Rich Girl" by Eleanor Gates; "Oliver Twist" by Charles Dickens (Dramatization by Muriel Brown).

Plays produced by the Dramatic School during the year include: "Learned Ladies" by Molière; "Fancy Free" by Stanley Houghton; "Dear Departed" by Stanley Houghton; "Reaping the Whirlwind" by Allan Monkhouse; "Poem of David" by Kenneth S. Goodman and Ben Hecht; "Idyll of the Shop" by Kenneth S. Goodman and Ben Hecht; "The Homecoming" by Kenneth S. Goodman and Ben Hecht; "The Cassilis Engagement" by St. John Hankin; "The Cradle Song" by G. Martinez Sierra.

In last year's annual report your Director mentioned the hope that an alliance between the Art Institute of Chicago and the forthcoming Century of Progress Exposition might result in a permanent addition to the present Art Institute Building. The litigation involving the injunction secured by the Stevens Hotel against the further enlargement of the Art Institute has suffered an unexpected and regrettable delay. The Art Institute appeal was argued in the Supreme Court in Springfield last June and the Supreme Court held the case under advisement until December, when they entered an order transferring the case to the Appellate Court for the first district at Chicago.

The Supreme Court, in its opinion, while refraining from determining the case on its merits, simplified the issues by eliminating the constitutional questions and the question of the validity of a municipal ordinance. Both of these issues were raised by the Stevens Hotel.

The case has been assigned to the main branch of the Appellate Court in Chicago, consisting of Judges McSurely, O'Connor and Matchett. A hearing in the near future is expected and it is hoped that the Appellate Court will render a decision within a few weeks thereafter. A right to review the Appellate Court decision in the Supreme Court will be the next step, so it is possible that a final decision will be rendered in or before next October in this litigation so vital to the future of the Art Institute.

As a result of this protracted litigation the Trustees of the Art Institute cannot enter into an agreement with the Trustees of the Exposition, the enlargement of our building is prevented, and the quality and scope of a Department of Fine Arts in the Exposition itself is seriously hampered.

The year 1930 has seen gratifying progress in the school in several departments. The most noticeable gain is perhaps in the field of painting, where increasing attention is being paid to color. The Industrial Art School, in its second year of separate development, has shown continued progress, which is most apparent in the department of architectural sculpture. Here several works have been completed in stone, wood, and terra cotta, and special attention has been paid in relating this work to architectural forms. The aim of the Industrial Art School—to make all its problems truly professional in character—is distinctly nearer realization.

That the work of the Teacher Training Department is receiving the approval of the schools is indicated by the fact that all the graduates of this year's class have secured positions.

Miss Florence Odell, Assistant Dean, and J. Scott MacNutt, Associate Dean, able assistants in administration, resigned during the year. We have been extremely fortunate in finding Miss Edythe L. Flack to take Miss Odell's place, and Norman L. Rice to succeed Mr. MacNutt. George Oberteuffer, professor of painting, resigned in May and has been succeeded by Louis Ritman. Other additions to the faculty include Francis Chapin, Rudolf Franz, Alida March, Theodore Schuyler and Kam Young Wong.

Bolton Brown, for a six weeks' period, gave a special class in lithography which has greatly stimulated interest in that department, and Robert La Montagne St. Hubert, professor of fresco at the American School at Fontainebleau, has conducted a fresco class in the school for a limited number of advanced students. Two large frescoes have been executed in the class rooms.

One of the outstanding events of the year has been the foundation of the James Nelson Raymond Traveling Fellowship Fund of $40,000 by Anna Louise Raymond, which will produce an income of $2,000 annually, to be awarded for foreign travel and study. The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship Fund of $44,000 has been discontinued, $40,000 having been applied to the Traveling Fellowship Fund, and $4,000 to the Anna Louise Scholarship Fund, raising it to $16,000, to establish four scholarships of $200 a year each. Mrs. Raymond has also announced her intention of creating a resident fellowship fund producing an annual resident fellowship of $500 for a fourth year student. This meets a need which has long existed, and it is to be hoped that her example will be followed by many in establishing similar resident fellowships.

The creation of the Frederick Latimer Wells Endowment Fund of $200,000 to found a chair in the school and to provide for visiting professorships from time to time, is an event the importance of which can hardly be exaggerated. This will establish the first named chair in the School of the Art Institute.

The Tuesday Art and Travel Club have announced a Scholarship of $5,000 in the School toward which they made a part payment during the year of $2,365. The Renaissance again contributed $400 toward their scholarship fund.

Special awards were made in June at the Graduation Exercises as follows: The Edward L. Ryerson Traveling Fellowship ($1,500) to John Wallace Purcell. The Anna Louise Raymond Traveling Fellowship ($1,500) to Merlin Pollock. The Bryan Lathrop Traveling Scholarship ($1,500) to Raymond Leo Ostrenga. The John Quincy Adams Traveling Scholarship ($1,500) to James Donald Prendergast. The American Traveling Scholarship ($250) to Ralph Henriksen. The total enrollment in the Day, Evening, Saturday and Summer Schools was 4,302.

The development of the educational work of the Art Institute has been due in large part to the generous benefactions of Mrs. James Nelson Raymond, whose foundation of the James Nelson Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and Public Schools serves both the children of members and talented pupils in the Public Schools. Total attendance at these lectures amounted to 58,874 in 1930 and in the five years since the inception of these lectures Mr. Watson and his assistants have addressed over 300,000 children. Gallery talks to Public School children under the auspices of the Board of Education were given to 9,566 pupils of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades by Mrs. Karl Buehr, Public School Docent.

Since many of our members are unable to attend lectures given in the afternoon, Dudley Crafts Watson, Membership Lecturer, gave gallery tours at 12:30 o'clock every Thursday and Friday with the exception of the summer months, repeating these excursions at 7 o'clock in the evening. Courses in Home Decoration given in the afternoon were also repeated in the evening. This experiment was greatly appreciated by our members, with a total attendance of 20,700. In all Mr. Watson spoke before audiences of members during the year amounting to 70,781. Lectures given to members and students in Fullerton Hall had an attendance of 129,787. Two lectures by Frank Lloyd Wright given in 1930: "The New Architecture" and "In the Realm of Ideas" are being prepared for publication through the Scammon Fund.

The Department of Museum Instruction gave 581 lectures and classes to 17,374 individuals, nearly 8,000 persons paying in class fees for such instruction. Special courses were offered for the first time to Public School Teachers, giving promotional credit, as well as to members of the Eleanor Club and the Y. W. C. A. This Department is self-sustaining and its growth under the circumstances has been most noteworthy. It is hoped that it may be endowed and its courses made free to members and to the public. Over 150,000 children attended the Children's Museum, founded by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester, during the year. Gallery tours were given every Saturday by the Curator, who gave also two series of talks: "Tales of a Traveler in France" and "Stories of Great Craftsmen." Exhibitions of interest to children were held throughout the year. Among gifts to this department may be mentioned three Javanese masks given by Charles H. Worcester, a rabbit carved in wood by Maurice Bardin given by Frank G. Logan, a group of Japanese toys given by H. Ichikawa, and twenty-five illustrated children's books given by the Fine Arts Department of the North Shore Woman's Club.

The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries, in considering the choice of books and periodicals to be bought, and in answering all questions for information or investigation, serve first the Staff of the Museum, the Faculty and students of the School.

Since, however, this Library has the most comprehensive art collection in the city and since the other large libraries restrict their buying in this field because of its supremacy, the Art Institute Libraries are necessarily used by all who need to study the history of art by means of books or illustrations. In ten years the number of tickets issued to persons making continuous and systematic use of its privileges has increased 104 per cent. The number of requests from schools and colleges for slides and photographs, has increased 120 per cent, and from business firms 23.6 per cent.

From friends the Library has received many valuable gifts during the year. Martin A. Ryerson, who always keeps the annual book funds generously in mind, made special provision also for the purchase of the following additions to the oriental section of the Library: "Picture Book of Insects," by Utamaro, two rare woodblock books; "Nara bon," two Japanese illuminated manuscripts of folklore: one on the "Taishokwan" in three volumes, and the other on "Manju" in two volumes. The great Treasures of the Temples of Nara and those of the Imperial Household Museum at Tokio are represented in seven series and of these 141 volumes have so far been received.

Alfred E. Hamill shows his interest in the Library in many ways. Among many other gifts he has sent this year are: "La Peinture Indienne à l'Époque des Grands Mogols," by Ivan Stehoukine; "Hoffmann's Schriftatlas, das Schriftschaffen der Gegenwart in Alphabeten und Anwendungen"; and a new quarterly illustrating the art of printing, "The Colophon," as well as the annual publications of the Société Française de Reproductions de Manuscrits à Peintures.

Mr. Potter Palmer gave, among other books, "A Survey of the Manuscripts of Tours," the first volume of a series issued by the Mediaeval Academy of America; also "Musical Instruments, Historic, Rare and Unique," by A. J. Hipkins.

A Spanish friend of the Library, John C. Cebrian, a life member of the Art Institute, has added several volumes to his gifts, now continued for many years.

Valuable additions were received from Robert Allerton, C. T. Loo, Fusajiro Abé and others. From its regular funds the Library has purchased the following important publications: "Catalogue of the Ancient Marbles at Ince Blundell Hall" by Ashmole; "French Gothic Sculpture," by Marcel Aubert and P. Vitry; "Drawings by Pisanello," by George F. Hill; "Correggio," by Ricci; "Spitzen von der Renaissance bis zum Empire," by Marie Schuette; "A History of Early Chinese Art," by Osvald Sirén.

Twenty periodicals and 14 Museum Bulletins have been added by exchange, gift, or subscription to the number received by the two Libraries.

The Wilson printed Art Index, begun in July, 1929, now covers 84 of the magazines and bulletins received by the two libraries. This leaves 143 current publications to be indexed by the reference staff.

The Department of Photographs and Lantern Slides, though seriously handicapped by cramped quarters and inadequate equipment, is increasingly used, particularly by educational institutions. The requests from clubs and from business firms show a steadily growing knowledge and appreciation of art. The requests from the latter have grown about twenty-four per cent in the last ten years. The total circulation from this department increased during 1930 over 19,600.

Valuable additions were made to the photograph collection by the purchase of 152 detailed views of Muhammadan architecture in Persia recently taken by Arthur Upham Pope, and a set of 495 fine examples of ironwork taken by Charles H. Whitaker to illustrate its use in Spanish domestic architecture. Dr. T. George Allen gave to the Lantern Slide and Photograph Department the 286 valuable slides which have been in use as a loan for a number of years. These represent Egyptian architecture, sculpture, and painting, and are accompanied by a catalogue and notes. From The Henry E. Huntington Art Gallery, the Library received a gift of thirty photographs of paintings. Ralph W. Hammett gave sixty-five photographs of contemporary architecture. The sculptors Ellerhusen and Lawrie sent reproductions of their recent work decorating the University of Chicago Chapel and the Nebraska State Capitol.

The gallery of the Burnham Library continues to be used temporarily as an excellent space for small exhibitions of interest both to the students and to visitors. Five of these exhibitions have been lent during the year,—The Traveling Exhibit of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, and final sets of drawings for the Paris Prize in Architecture offered by the Society of Beaux-Arts Architects, and selected drawings from the George Rogers Clark Memorial Competition. The historical development of bridges from early timber examples in India down to the present day was illustrated by a series of photographs used by Charles S. Whitney in his recent books "Bridges, a Study of their Art, Science and Evolution." Modern Architecture was represented by photographs of the work of Holabird and Root. Louis Sullivan's original pencil drawings for his book, "A System of Architectural Ornament," have been mounted and matted so that they may be preserved and more safely consulted. Irving K. Pond generously turned over to the Library several books and his complete files of unbound architectural periodicals. These will be valuable in filling out the Library sets and for the pamphlet file. Carl F. Heimbrodt presented a special copy of the "General Illumination Course" offered by the Westinghouse Lighting Institute, and also the unpublished set of lectures on the "Fundamentals of Architecture" conducted in the Art Institute by the Illuminating Engineers Society. Further valued gifts of books and pamphlets were received from the Illuminating Engineering Society of New York; from Nela Park, Cleveland; from the Politechnik Club of Chicago; from Frank Lloyd Wright; Martin A. Ryerson, and others. The numbers of volumes in Ryerson and Burnham Libraries now total 30,369.

"Lithography for Artists" by Bolton Brown, the six Scammon Lectures delivered in 1929, was the most important publication of the year. A catalogue of the Butler Inness Collection and second editions of the handbook of paintings and of the catalogue of the Birch-Bartlett Collection were also printed.

During the year 1930, $71,243.50 was added to the Life Membership Fund, which now amounts to $1,206,488.50.

Visitors to the Art Institute in 1930 numbered 916,816.

Notable gifts to the Department of Prints and Drawings include the rare color print, "Mademoiselle Coypel," engraved by Louis Marin Bonnet, after Boucher, presented by Mrs. Charles Netcher, an important addition to the Collection of 18th Century French Color Prints, as companion piece to the "Tête de Flore" by the same engraver which she gave in 1927; from Robert Allerton a drawing by Picasso, "Paysannes d'Andorre," 1906, also drawings by Gaudier-Brzeska, W. Jacobsen and Jules Pascin; Thomas F. Furness has given in memory of his friend William McCallin McKee the collection of 410 Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century Caricatures by Rowlandson, Gilray, Bunbury, the Cruikshanks and others, that were once the property of Miss Humphrey, publisher of Gilray's prints. Alfred E. Hamill has presented twenty-three chiaroscuro prints by John Skippe and a splendid impression of "Hercules Slaying Cacus" by Goltzius.

To the Albert Roullier Memorial Collection of Modern French Prints, twelve items by Bertrand, Chahine, Courbet, Harpignies, Laurencin, Luce, Lunois and Matisse have been added by Mrs. Albert Roullier and Miss Alice Roullier.

Ten etchings by contemporary artists, gifts of the Chicago Society of Etchers from the Exhibition of 1930, and eight contemporary lithographs and wood engravings from the First International Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving, from various donors, were added to the Collections, as well as the purchase prizes from both Exhibitions.

The Print and Drawing Club have purchased for the collections important additions that could not otherwise have been acquired; a drawing by Segonzac, 15 lithographs by Toulouse-Lautrec, including the unique proof in color of "Le Jockey" and the English Series of "Yvette Guilbert"; through the joint gift of Martin A. Ryerson and the Print and Drawing Club, a group of fifty-five etchings, aquatints and lithographs by Arthur B. Davies has been added.

The following were added to the collections by purchase: 13 Fifteenth Century Woodcut Book Illustrations from the Joseph Brooks Fair Fund; "Engravings by Eric Gill"; three etchings by Henri Matisse from the Hannan Fund; "Louis XV" by Le Blon from the William McCallin McKee Memorial Fund; "Una Trattoria," etching by Job Nixon; "Viba," etching by Gerald Brockhurst; "Tragica," etching by Albert Sterner, from the Wolf Fund; seven lithographs, illustrations to "Faust" by Delacroix, from the John H. Wrenn Fund.

An Exhibition of especial interest, "Fine Prints of all Periods," held during the summer term, was made up from the Collections of the Art Institute, the Clarence Buckingham Collection and loans from Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer, to whom the Department is again indebted.

Other exhibitions of interest were: "Some 15th Century Book Illustrations: German and Florentine"; "Fine Prints of Four Centuries"; "Memorial Exhibition of Prints by Arthur B. Davies"; "French Decorative Prints of the 18th Century"; "Prints from the Albert H. Wolf Collection"; "Exhibition of Modern Norwegian Prints"; "Selection of Prints and Drawings from the Charles Deering Collection" and "Modern French Prints from the Albert Roullier Memorial Collection"; and from the Clarence Buckingham Collection: "Selected Etchings by Rembrandt," "Etchings by Seymour Haden," "Etchings by D. Y. Cameron," and "Etchings of Paris by Charles Meryon."

The interest in the First International Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving warranted a continuation and for the Second Exhibition a vigorous effort was made to reach more countries and artists, with the result that over 1700 entries were received, out of which the Jury accepted 416, representing 22 countries.

The thanks of the Department are again tendered to Mrs. Duncan Hodges for efficient help given gratuitously; and to Miss Marie Smith for assistance during the Second International Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving.

The Department of Painting and Sculpture received from Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester a painting, "The Creation of Eve," by Paolo Veronese, one of the outstanding examples of this artist's later period, and a notable addition to the collection of Venetian Masters which these donors are forming. Also given by Mr. and Mrs. Worcester are the following paintings: "Homer Dictating," by Pierfrancesco Mola, probably the only work by this rare Baroque master in an American museum, "Beggar Boy," by the Venetian painter of the eighteenth century, Piazzetta, and "Still Life: Violin," by George Oberteuffer, a contemporary American artist.

To the Walter H. Schulze Memorial Gallery Paul Schulze has added two important landscapes, "New England Headlands" by Childe Hassam and "Connecticut Hillside" by Emil Carlsen. Through the permission of the Friends of American Art and the Trustees of the Art Institute, Mr. Schulze was permitted to purchase "Ice-bound" by Willard Metcalf and "Lightly Falling Snow" by Guy C. Wiggins, and to add them to the Walter H. Schulze Memorial Collection.

The Art Institute of Chicago possesses one of the most complete collections of French paintings in the world, and in the past year has made two significant purchases to fill gaps in the survey. The figure-piece, "Mère Grégoire," added through the Wilson L. Mead Fund, is one of Courbet's most famous works, while the Poussin, "St. John on Patmos," painted at the height of the artist's power in 1650, acquired through the A. A. McKay Fund for the Munger Collection, illustrates admirably the master who has exerted more influence than any other on French landscape.

"Sleep," by Davenport Griffen, was received through the purchase prize fund established by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan. The Friends of American Art secured for their collection Leon Kroll's "The Path by the Sea," as well as purchasing Grant Wood's delightful "American Gothic," which was one of the most talked-of paintings in the Forty-Third Annual American Exhibition. The children of Anthony Angarola presented "Main Traveled Road, Cagnes," in memory of their father.

Two small bronzes of interest were added to the collection of works by contemporary sculptors. Robert Allerton presented Georg Kolbe's "Praying Boy," while Chana Orloff's "Woman and Basket" was the gift of The Arts Club of Chicago.

In the field of exhibitions, in addition to the Annual American, the Chicago Artists, and the International Water Color exhibitions, the department arranged for two important retrospectives, one for Delacroix, celebrating the centenary of Romanticism, and the first showing of his works in America, and the other for Toulouse-Lautrec, likewise the first important exhibition by this artist to be held in the United States. Both exhibitions included paintings, drawings, and prints and were assembled with the very generous assistance of museums and private collectors here and abroad. Other noteworthy exhibitions included Contemporary Belgian Art, Paintings by Jean Crawford Adams, Emil Armin, Charles H. Chapman, John Steuart Curry, Frank J. Gavencky, Rudolph Ingerle, Charles Edward Mullin, Laura van Pappelendam, Louis Ritman and Harold Weston; sculpture by Enrico Glicenstein and Serge Yourievitch, and an Exhibition of Contemporary Illustrations from American Magazines. Loan exhibitions were shown of The Charles Deering Collection; Old Masters from the Max Epstein Collection, Water Colors from the Collections of Martin A. Ryerson and Mrs. L. L. Coburn. Gallery 43 has been installed with a loan collection of German Primitives borrowed from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worcester.

The Department has made generous loans to important exhibitions, and to the newly organized Museum of Modern Art in New York, it has been an almost constant lender. Paintings and sculpture have been sent to the Albright Gallery in Buffalo, to the Metropolitan Museum in New York, to the Rhode Island School of Design, to the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, to the Detroit Institute of Arts and to the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D. C., to mention only some of the outstanding loans. The Art Institute was the principal contributor among American museums to the Exhibition of Delacroix held last summer at the Louvre in Paris, sending four paintings. The exhibition of Toulouse-Lautrec will be shown later at the Museum of Modern Art, after which many of the paintings will go on to Paris for the retrospective showing there. The Louvre Museum has repaid our courtesy by sending two of Lautrec's most famous works, the panels which decorated the booth of La Goulue. Paintings from the permanent collection were likewise seen at the Swedish American Exhibition of last summer in Oslo, Stockholm, Copenhagen and Munich, where the same collection of American Art, Historic and Modern, was displayed.

The Department of Oriental Art has received 157 prints by various masters as additions to the Clarence Buckingham Collection of Japanese Prints, including a primitive of great distinction by Torii Kiyomasu. Additions to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection include three monumental Buddhist stone sculptures of the T'ang Dynasty, believed to be the most important stone group outside of China, a T'ang silver-gilt cup and saucer, and a covered jar of the Han Dynasty, two bronze masks of the Chou Dynasty, said to have been sewn on a burial garment, a bronze Han drum, a pair of Han braziers with dishes, a bronze caldron and a wine pot of the Tsin type, and a bronze buckle with jade inset of the Han Dynasty (see illustration). The room of early Chinese bronze objects is now famous not only in Occidental countries but in the Orient as well. Other gifts to the Department include: a Japanese pottery bottle; two pottery cups, T'ang Dynasty, China, from Yamanaka & Company; pair of porcelain bowls, Yung Cheng Period, China, the gift of Lee Ling Yun in memory of his father Lee Van Ching; five Egyptian textiles given by Mrs. Thomas Russell; eight Japanese ivory carvings, an anonymous gift; a Persian candlestick, two Persian bowls and fifty-eight textiles, the gift of Messrs. Logan, Patten and Ryerson; a Nô robe, given by Mrs. Clyde Carr; a Nô robe, the gift of the Orientals; a Rhodian plate, a Kutahia bowl and an Egyptian brass drum presented by Martin A. Ryerson; Miscellaneous Indian objects from the Adeline Wheeler Estate; a Chinese textile, gift of Miss Helen Holden. Departmental purchases comprise a group of eight Luristan bronzes, important both for workmanship and archaeological interest, recently excavated from graves in Northern Persia; four casts of reliefs from Borobodur and nine Chinese and Tibetan textiles and a Nō robe purchased from the Nickerson Fund. The following Departmental Exhibitions were held during the year: Chinese Bronzes, Japanese Screens, The Ganeshi Lall Collection of Indian Textiles and the Adolph Kroch Collection of Japanese Netsuke.

Through the generosity of Robert Allerton fifteen galleries, the stairways and entrances to Hutchinson Wing in the Department of Decorative Arts were re-decorated during the year. Important gifts to this Department were the following additions to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection: an early 16th Century Swiss tapestry; a 15th Century Gothic limestone head with traces of polychromy, a French Gothic late 15th Century Madonna and Child. Twenty-seven pieces of European pottery and porcelain and a collection of French fans were given by Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson; a Queen Anne mirror, an English 18th Century side table and a contemporary American stained glass window were given by Robert Allerton; Mrs. R. T. Crane, Jr., gave a Queen Anne architect's desk; Manikins were given by Miss Elizabeth Day McCormick, by Mrs. Potter Palmer, and Robert Allerton; and costumes, room fittings, costume accessories, textiles and prints were presented by Mrs. Watson Blair, Mrs. Clive Runnells, Princess Cantacuzene, Mrs. E. Crane Chadbourne, Mrs. Edward D. Kimball, Miss Irene Lindaur, Miss Elizabeth Day McCormick, Mrs. Potter Palmer, The Needlework and Textile Guild, Mrs. R. S. Sonnenschein, Watson and Boaler, David Adler, and Robert Allerton. A French Regence chaise-longue was purchased. Exhibitions of Quilts, of Ecclesiastical Vestments, of Carpets and Covers, of Modern Glass, International in scope, of 19th Century Costumes and Accessories, of Work by Members of the Needlework and Textile Guild were held during the year. This active and useful society now numbers 618 members.

During the summer the mosaic floor in the entrance lobby which had been in service for over thirty years was removed and replaced by Tennessee marble. This, together with a walnut information and admission sales desk, greatly improves the appearance of the main entrance. New humidifiers were installed in galleries where panel paintings are on exhibition, giving exact and constant humidity control and preventing warping and surface blisters. A modern internal fire-alarm system which gives the location of any fire automatically and to which all employees may respond with no loss of time replaced our worn-out and antiquated recording gongs. A weekly fire drill is held at various points in the building:

The following were named Benefactors by the Trustees:

Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson,
Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe, Chauncey Keep.

During the year the Art Institute lost by death Mrs. W. F. Grower, a tactful and devoted officer of the Municipal Art League, whose service to the artists and clubwomen of Chicago was most notable; Wallace L. De Wolf, an Honorary Trustee since 1925 and the following Governing Members: James M. Cowan, Thomas D. Jones, William R. Linn, W. H. Miner, Woodruff J. Parker and F. O. Wetmore. Life Members who died in 1930 include Jules Berchem, A. M. Coit, John W. Low, A. T. Martin, Hugo Pam, Henry Schoellkopf, Jr., Miss Frederika Skinner.

The following were elected Governing Members during the year: Vincent Bendix, Mrs. Chauncey B. Borland, Jule F. Brower, Arthur W. Cutten, Charles H. Hamill, George F. Harding, Walter P. Paepcke, Charles Piez, Mrs. Kersey Coates Reed, Melvin A. Traylor, Chester D. Tripp.

In addition to gifts and bequests already mentioned the Art Institute received during the year from Honoré and Potter Palmer $25,000, unrestricted as to use of income; from Martin A. Ryerson $5,000 to be applied to the Employees Loan and Benefit Fund and $100,000 from the General Education Board, to be used to maintain a school of Industrial Art. The following bequests, unrestricted as to the use of income, were received during the past year: Chauncey Keep $25,000; Elizabeth H. North $5,000; Andrew B. Seaver $5,000.

A curiously complacent attitude toward the Art Institute is often maintained by the Chicago public. There is, we are glad to say, a feeling of pride and proprietorship in the museum coupled with a belief that it is both a great and a rich institution, but this belief is not wholly justified by the facts. Indeed the Governing Members and the Public should clearly understand the weak financial condition of the Art Institute. In paintings and in Chinese pottery, sculpture and bronzes we are entitled to high rank amongst American Museums. In all other Departments we are inferior to other American Museums. We occupy a building which through wear and tear of visitors, through corrosive action of gases, through settling of floors and dirt and cinder deposits on skylights, we are barely able to keep clean and in repair. We should have definite humidity and temperature control throughout the building to protect works of art thoroughly and completely. Within the next five years it will be necessary to replace all metal work and skylights in the Michigan Avenue Building and no funds are available for this necessary expenditure. Our unrestricted funds which should be used for the purchase of works of art must be used for maintenance and for physical upkeep. Eight other American Art Museums possess larger purchase funds, including such smaller cities as Kansas City, Toledo, Cleveland, and Detroit. The curatorial staffs of five other American Art Museums are stronger and better organized than ours. During the coming year every Department in the Art Institute will be crippled through lack of funds, no salary may be augmented and no pension allotted to any long term employee who may become superannuated.

SUGGESTED FORMS OF BEQUEST

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, . . . (amounts or objects bequeathed or list of same) for such uses consistent with the purposes of the aforesaid corporation as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I direct that my executors, out of the remainder of my estate, shall set aside stocks, bonds and notes, or other securities of the value estimated by them to be sufficient to make the sum of . . . dollars, which I hereby give and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, for uses consistent with its purposes, as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation of the State of Illinois, . . . dollars to be held and applied by the trustees thereof for the uses and purposes of that institution.

I give, devise and bequeath to the said The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, the lands, tenements and hereditaments aforesaid, the leases and all my interest therein and in the covenants therein contained and in the rents to accrue thereunder, and also the reversions in fee in the lands above described.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal . . . dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the . . . day of . . . 19 . . . which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage The Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of that high degree of excellence which is worthy of a great museum.
